Motion for Expedited Ruling on Emergency Motion to Stay Order of January 15

Defendant Michael C. Dunston moves the Court for an accelerated ruling on his Emergency Motion to stay its Order of January 15, 2019, which requires the Defendants to file a “consolidated answer” to Plaintiff’s Third Amended Complaint by January 29, 2019.

The deadline for filing a consolidated answer is fast approaching, yet timely compliance with the Order would impose an oppressive burden upon Defendants (entailing a collaborative effort among three lawyers to jointly respond to the far-flung and unfocused allegations of some 391 paragraphs). That burden stems from Plaintiff’s blatant violation of Rule 8’s requirement of a “short and plain” pleading—a problem (with a requested solution) addressed in this Defendant’s Motion to Strike, filed herewith.

A proposed order follows.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED this 23rd day of January, 2019.
